An exchange says: "If Parker is elected, the original Parker man in the South will be appointed a member of the cabinet." That worries us a little, as we hardly know what portfolio to have put in the refrigerator till the next President says "Hi on!"

Says the Washington Post: "Oscar Strauss says the Democratic party is controlled by Mr. Bryan. That will come in the nature of a shock of surprise to Mr. Bryan." Surely Oscar has failed to observe that Col. Bryan is manifesting unwarranted distress for a man who has everything his own way.

A New York man is suing his wife because she is stronger than he is and cuffs him about at her will. This is the first time we have been brought face to face with the allegation that "strenuosity" is ground for divorce. If the court so adjudges, we give notice of a motion to separate Roosevelt from his job after the 4th of next March.

In Northern cities the automobilists are being compelled to recognize "the speed limit." All of us who are going at a fast clip may as well examine our "governors" in order to keep from hitting the ceiling before we get fairly into the race. We have to sit up straight every day and Sunday too if we don't want to see our finish.

The other day an Indiana beauty got $6,000 damages from a man who kissed her six times. If she had only kissed him once he would have saved $6,000, as the one kiss would have been evidence before a jury that it was a mutual transaction. Gee! How near but yet so far the fellow was from squeezing $6,000 out of the girl. The opportunities we miss make us poor.

At the 20th annual session of the Association of Commissioners of Labor and Statistics, held July 12th to 16th, at Concord, N. H., Hon. H. B. Varner, of Lexington, North Carolina's popular commissioner, was elected first vice president of the association. This was an honor to North Carolina and it fell on a good and worthy man. Dr. Varner is the editor of the Lexington Dispatch, and the press of North Carolina has a right to be stuck on him. Shake.

Says the Raleigh Post: "The question has been asked as to whose pictures should be placed on public school house walls, living statesmen or dead statesmen. And it has been suggested that it will be safer to teach the children the record and example of the illustrious dead, because no change in the teaching would likely be necessary." As the good that men do live after them and their faults are forgotten, the dead statesmen can be used to better advantage as examples.

LOCAL DOTS.

— A colored excursion went to Lake Waccamaw yesterday.

—Brig "Irene" has cleared for New York with cargo from the Cape Fear Lumber Co.

— The condition of Bishop Watson remains about the same. If anything, he is growing weaker.

—Bladen Street M. E. Sunday school will have its annual excursion to Carolina Beach to-day. All friends are invited.

— Several of the drug stores have signs conspicuously displayed: "No Dispensary Discussions Allowed Here." So much of it is a little tiresome isn't it?

— A letter to a member of the family in Wilmington says that the condition of Mr. N. Jacobi, who is ill at Catawba Springs, was much improved.

— A big excursion will be here to-morrow from Gibson, N. C., and intermediate points on the Atlantic Coast Line. Hatch Bros. will bring another from Goldsboro on the same day.

— Fayettville Observer: "The heavy rains of the past week have done much damage to cotton, which is shedding considerably. The farmers in the western section of the county report that a bug, which resembles the Georgia Sharp Shooter, is also doing damage to cotton."

— Through an error Saturday's quotation of rosin on the local market was given as steady at $2.35 when it should have been steady at $2.25. The market remained at that figure yesterday. Crude turpentine was firm yesterday at $2.25, $3.75 and $4.00.

— A fine horse belonging to Mr. Chas. Richters had to be killed late yesterday afternoon on account of a broken leg. The animal was sick yesterday and while being drenched, he caught one of his hind legs in some obstruction, breaking it when he fell.

— Reproducing a personal from the STAR to the effect that Rev. A. W. Seabrease, rector of S. Paul's parish, had gone North, the Raleigh Times cracks this joke at the expense of Wrightsville: "We are sorry. We intended going to Wilmington soon. Wonder if we can make a date with the gentleman at Morehead about the 27th?"

— Charlotte Observer, 24th: "Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Graham and Mrs. George Fitzsimmons and children returned last night from Wrightsville Beach, where Mrs. Graham was taken ill several days ago. She was sufficiently strong to return to her home here last night. Dr. Graham and Mr. Fitzsimmons went to the beach to accompany Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Fitzsimmons and children home. They had been at Wrightsville about a week."

MR. COLLIER FILES HIS BOND.

Will Enter Upon Duties as Federal Court Clerk To-day—His Deputy.

At his office in Raleigh on Saturday Judge Thos. R. Purnell approved the bond of Mr. Samuel P. Collier as clerk of the United States District and Circuit Courts at Wilmington. The bond is for $25,000, of which $15,000 is for the Circuit Court and $10,000 for the District Court. The resignation of Mr. Collier as referee in bankruptcy was received and filed. His son, Mr. James K. Collier, was appointed deputy clerk.

Mr. George Green, clerk of the Federal courts in Newbern, has been assigned to make the transfer of the office to Mr. Collier, succeeding the late Mr. W. H. Shaw, and he will be here to-day for that purpose. Mr. Green has been in temporary charge of the office, in connection with his duties at Newbern, since the death of Mr. Shaw and has everything in readiness for the transfer, so there will be no delay. Mr. Collier will be in charge this afternoon.

Funeral Sunday Afternoon.

The funeral of the late Henry R. Kuhl, Jr., whose death occurred early Sunday morning, was conducted in the afternoon at 5 o'clock from the late residence by Rev. C. B. Paul, pastor of the Southside Baptist church. The pall-bearers were Messrs. James Swinson, J. A. Lewis, D. D. Benton, L. C. Sutton, C. O. Knox and W. H. Strickland. A large number of friends were in attendance upon the obsequies.

Baseball This Week.

Wilmington baseball fanatics are assured of some good sport this week if the present schedule of the Cape Fear Academy team's management matures. On Wednesday—the day of the dispensary election—there will be a game with the fast, semi-professional team from McColl, S. C.; on Friday, a game with Newbern, and on Saturday a heavy-weight contest with Lake Waccamaw.

Badly Injured Shoulder.

Frank Russ, a white youth about 15 years of age, who lives near Front and Wooster streets, was taken to the James Walker Memorial Hospital yesterday afternoon suffering with a badly injured shoulder. ELECTION TOMORROW

Dispensary Campaign About to Reach Climax After Developing Monster Contest.

THE SPEAKINGS LAST NIGHT.

Col. Waddell and Dispensary Speakers Heard by Good Crowds—Hearing of Challenges—Opening and Closing of Polls—Notes.

The dispensary and all appertaining thereto continues uppermost in the minds of Wilmington people. They are wrought up to a pitch few of this generation have seen them before. While the results to be attained may be and are totally different, it is doubtful if the public mind was more inflamed during the trying times of the recent revolution. The anti-dispensary people are strongly intrenched and the dispensary people seem to recognize that fact and are making their fight accordingly. What the result will be remains for the count at the polls to determine.

The strenuosity of the times seems not to tolerate the conservative and temperate view of anything in connection with the fight. The dispensary man sees a thousand eager, attentive voters at the foot of a dispensary orator's platform; while the opposition sizes up the crowd through the other end of the telescope. A thousand may push and jam at the feet of an anti-dispensary speaker and listen to eloquence and argument from an earnest and enthusiastic opponent of the "great moral institution," but the dispensary man gauges the attendance, unconsciously perhaps, according to his own particular view of the great issue now presented.

The foregoing paragraph is prefatory to the rallies last night. There were three of them—two by the dispensary people and one by the opposition. Col. Waddell addressed a crowd at Fifth and Castle streets, which was variously estimated at from 800 to 1,500. Editor J. W. Bailey, of the Raleigh Biblical Recorder, and chairman of the State Anti Saloon Campaign Committee, and Rev. Joe. P. King addressed a crowd variously estimated at from two to four hundred at Front and Queen streets, in advocacy of the dispensary. At Fourth and Harnett streets Rev. R. C. Beaman and Iredell Meares, Esq., addressed a gathering estimated at from 400 to 600, also in favor of the dispensary.

Col. Waddell was introduced by Marsden Bellamy, Esq., who briefly outlined the position of the anti-dispensary people in the present fight and commended the speaker to the careful and considerate attention of every voter present. Both Mr. Bellamy and Col. Waddell were given great applause. The Delgado Band had previously made a tour of the city in one of the large suburban cars, aflame with banners advertising the speaking and it also played a number of selections at the rallying grounds. Col. Waddell's speech was temperate but a terrible arraignment of the dispensary system. Many had expected that he would reply to Mr. Meares' attack upon him in the Court House Saturday night, but he dismissed it with a wave of the hand, so to speak. He said that the attack troubled him no more than a mosquito and all he had to say was: "Shoo, fly, don't you bother me." When he was about to conclude, some one in the crowd yelled to know what about Mr. Meares in a recent little episode with City Attorney Bellamy. Col. Waddell used the figure of speech that Mr. Meares, by his recent action, had committed suicide and he didn't care to talk about a man who was no more.

Following Col. Waddell's speech there were loud calls for Mr. Marsden Bellamy and he responded in an impromptu address, which is spoken of as having been earnest, conservative and bearing the ear marks of true sincerity. He was given a perfect outburst of applause.

The crowning speeches for the dispensary people during the night were those of Rev. Dr. Beaman and Mr. Meares at Fourth and Harnett streets. Dr. Beaman's talk was strong, eloquent and full of life. Mr. Meares was not so personal as upon the occasion of his address in the Court House Saturday night, but there was enough local application of his subject, combined with a broad discussion of the question, to prompt the criticism that of his two speeches in the campaign, the one last night was most effective. He was given frequent and enthusiastic applause. Mr. Meares was presented by Rev. Geo. B. Webster.

Mr. Bailey's address at Front and Queen streets and that of Rev. J. P. King were also good from the viewpoint of the dispensary and both speeches were liberally applauded. A number of ladies were in the audience.

Hearing of Challenges.

Challenges were heard in the Second and Third wards yesterday; also a few in the Fifth. In the Second ward there were originally 110 challenges but the registrars and judges went over the books and reduced the number to 89 by striking out the names of persons known to have left the city, removed to other wards or died. Of those summoned to appear, 56 responded but only 11 of the challenges were sustained and 45 were allowed to vote. Fifteen were continued until election day; the others were stricken off by mutual consent.

In the Third ward there were 40 challenges by the dispensary people and 16 by the opposition. Of that number 32 appeared yesterday and all but two showed cause why they were legally entitled to vote and their names were continued on the books.

In the Fifth ward, five additional challenged voters appeared and the challenges not being sustained, their names were allowed to remain on the books. The motion by attorneys for the anti-dispensary faction with regard to challenges made by a person other than a bona fide elector, was not sustained by the judge.

To-morrow the Election.

Only one more day and the suspense will be over. The campaign will be rounded up to-day with much cussin' and discussin'. It has been agreed by attorneys on both sides that the law requires the polls to open to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock and close at sundown. Some had contended that the election should last from sun-up to sun-down, but that appears to be erroneous. In conformity to the law, Mayor Springer issues a proclamation to-day closing all barrooms at 6 o'clock this evening until 6 o'clock Thursday morning. Though there has been no talk of such methods on the streets, Chairman Grady, of the Dispensary Campaign Committee, seems to find it expedient to issue an advertisement offering a reward of $100 for proof sufficient to convict any person of buying or selling or offering to buy or sell a vote in the election. The struggle to-morrow will be "well worth the price of admission."

All-Day Prayer Service.

To-morrow during the election, from 5 A. M. until the polls close, ladies of the city will gather in the First Baptist church and hold an all-day prayer and praise service for the triumph of the dispensary cause in the city. The First Baptist church was chosen because of its central location, and pastors of a majority of the other Protestant churches made the announcement from their pulpits Sunday and invited the ladies of their congregations to participate. All are invited to attend and leave at their pleasure. A lady has been appointed to lead the service each hour during the day.

Speakings To-night.

Both sides will continue their campaign of speech-making up to the last hour. Col. Waddell will address his fellow citizens at Fifth and Brunswick streets to-night at 8:30 o'clock in opposition to the dispensary and J. O. Carr, Esq., will speak in favor of the dispensary at Fifth and Castle streets. Rev. R. C. Beaman and Rev. J. W. Boney will also speak at the First Baptist church.

GOVERNOR AND ENCAMPMENT.

No Reply Yet Received by Chamber of Commerce—Some Comments.

It was given out in Raleigh Saturday that Governor Aycock's reply with reference to the encampment matter had been mailed to the Chamber of Commerce and if it was made public, the Chamber of Commerce would have to give it out. Inquiry at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday brought response that no reply had been received from the Governor, though one had been expected on every train since it was stated that a reply had been given.

Below will be found some pertinent paragraphs from the scintillating Durham Herald:

"Wilmington should remember that the Governor might have been working in the interest of the State's railroad and the State's hotel.

"Of course, Wilmington knows that she cannot help herself, but like the rest of us, she claims the privilege of speaking her mind.

"It is expected that Wilmington will now also show up strong against State ownership of railroads."

Young Man Has Appendicitis.

Young Mr. Freddie Bear, a son of the late Sol. Bear, suffered a second attack of appendicitis at the Summer home of the family on Wrightsville Beach, Sunday and had to be brought up in the afternoon for an operation at the James Walker Memorial Hospital. The operation was performed by Dr. Burbank, assisted by Dr. Akerman, surgeon in charge of the hospital, and last night the young man was resting very well. Hundreds of his friends and of the family sincerely hope that the operation will prove a success.

His Life Despaired Of.

Mr. F. M. Foy, Jr., of Scott's Hill, who came to the hospital last Thursday for treatment of injuries received in a runaway last week, was reported in a dying condition yesterday, though last midnight he was still alive. Mr. Foy is 25 years of age and was thrown from a cart on his father's farm, one of the heavy wheels passing over his stomach and injuring him internally. Mr. Foy's parents and other relatives are with him.

Bitten by Rattle Snake.

A little 13-year-old son of C. H. Davis, who lives about three miles from Carolina Beach, in Federal Point township, was bitten on the leg by a rattlesnake yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. The father of the boy was telephoning to the city last last night for a physician, but at last accounts one had not been secured.

HE FOUGHT BURGLAR.

Policeman Frank George's Harrowing Experience With a Burly Negro Sunday.

IN THE COURTS YESTERDAY.

Mayor Had Nearly a Score of Offenders Before Him—Some Fined, Others Sentenced to Road and Jail—Negro Slashed Another.

The arrest by Constable Savage yesterday of a negro named Dave Smith brings to light a good police story which might not otherwise have been told—at least not until the criminal was caught. It occurred Sunday morning about 3:30 o'clock when the clouds were heavy and it was very dark on the wharf. Policeman Frank George was on duty on the river beat south of Market street. About the hour named he was silently stealing up Water street when suddenly near the store of the Brunswick Grocery Co., his attention was arrested by a cracking sound as if some one were prizing a door. He stopped, peered through the darkness and before making a sound, he made out the dim outline of a man working industriously at taking out the panel of a door to the door. He crouched in his position and waited developments, expecting to arrest the burglar when he had accomplished his task and was leaving the store.

The negro, however, was too bold and his prizing and beating on the panel soon awoke persons sleeping up stairs over the store. They began to move about and the negro ceased operations. Officer George knew that all he could accomplish then was the arrest of the negro for the attempt at burglary. He sprang at Smith and covered him at once, at the same time applying his nippers to the wrist of the negro. But the would-be burglar was a power, physically, and he at once began fighting furiously. The plucky little officer was giving him as good as he sent, when the negro picked up a brick and struck the policeman on the wrist by which he was holding the nippers around the black wrist. Of course, that gave the negro both hands free and Policeman George was no match for him. However, he held on and fought with the negro until forced to fall in the ditch beside the curbing and the negro began trampling him in the stomach. Smith then made his escape but Officer George succeeded in holding his coat and cap.

Sunday night Officer George and Constable Savage formed a posse and searched places in the country where Smith was likely to have been, but he could not be found. But the ruffian was still bold and remained around the city. Constable Savage came upon him yesterday morning about 8 o'clock at Tenth and Queen streets and his arrest followed. Officer George at once identified him and witnesses were secured who had seen him wearing the coat and cap left on the scene of the struggle with the policeman. Smith was placed in jail but will be turned over to the Mayor to-day for trial upon the charge of attempted burglary. He will then be sent over to Justice Fowler for trial on the further charge of resisting an officer.

Police Court Yesterday.

Seventeen offenders greeted the Mayor in the police court yesterday. An unlucky thirteen of that number were each taxed with fines and costs ranging from $2.35 to $12.35; two went to the higher court; one was sent to jail for 30 days and one was given opportunity of leaving the city by sundown or going to the roads for a calendar month. The latter opportunity was embraced, the offender having been Amos Redd. The defendants who were fined contributed an aggregate of $94.45 to the exchequer of the city and went their way rejoicing.

It was Estelle Davis, a colored damsel, who went to jail for 30 days. She was sleeping peacefully a deep sleep induced by cheap liquor, on Princess, between Front and Water streets, a little past Saturday midnight when she received a rude awakening by Policeman Alex. Wells and was sent up in the patrol wagon.

Ernest Blount and Louis Lavendar, two colored gentry of light fingers and not unknown to the police, were the couple held for the higher court. Saturday night a freight car on the A. C. L. yards was broken open and very soon thereafter, Lavendar appeared at a negro shop and offered for sale a box of crackers and a bucket of candy at a ridiculously low figure. The attempted sale was reported to a white man in the vicinity and Lavendar and Blount were caught with the "goods on 'em" as they were leaving. Policeman G. S. Phillips sent the pair down to the station.

Of the number fined by the Mayor four were excursionists who engaged in a drunken brawl at the Carolina Central station just prior to the departure of their train Saturday night. Frank Andrews and Haman Blocker, the two negroes charged with holding up an excursionist as he was going to the depot Saturday night, are being held for witnesses.

Used Razor on Him.

Saturday night about 11 o'clock at Seventh and Castle streets, Charlie Burnett, colored, and another negro named Gary Smith had a difficulty. Smith was slashed in the throat with a razor by Burnett and had to have several stitches taken in the wound. Burnett was recognized for his appearance in Justice Bornemann's court to-day at 10 A. M. to answer the charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

ORDERED LAWYER TO JAIL.

Sensation in Fayetteville Magistrate's Court Yesterday—Matter Settled.

[Fayetteville Observer, 25th.]

"A sensational case developed in this city at noon to-day when Magistrate D. N. McLean sentenced Attorney J. W. Bolton, of the Fayetteville bar, to ten days in jail for alleged contempt of his court.

"The contempt case grew out of a case of the State vs. M. H. Powell, charged with an assault with a deadly weapon on a woman named Addie Black, which was being tried before Magistrate McLean at noon, with Mr. Bolton representing the defendant.

"Last week Powell was tried before the Mayor, charged with a simple assault on the Black woman, and was fined $5 and the costs, which he paid. The attorneys for the State claimed that the Mayor did not have jurisdiction in the case and had another warrant sworn out, and signed by Magistrate McLean, charging Powell with an assault, this time with a deadly weapon. The warrant was served on Powell and he was taken before Magistrate McLean at noon.

"The magistrate required him to give a justified bond for $25 for his appearance at trial Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, and this a friend of the prisoner offered to do, but the magistrate said that he wished it understood that, in consideration of the small bond he required of the prisoner, he would hold boondsman responsible, not only for the appearance of Powell at trial, but for his good behavior in the meantime. The would-be boondsman then refused to go on the bond. Mr. Bolton, as Powell's attorney, objected to the latter requirement, and said he did not think the court was treating his client fairly. The court asked him if he meant that, and upon his replying in the affirmative, sentenced him to jail for ten days for contempt. The court afterwards told Mr. Bolton, who was then in custody of the sheriff's officer, that if he would retract what he said he would withdraw the commitment. Mr. Bolton said he would not do this, and he was ordered to jail.

"Just as we go to press we hear that the matter has been settled, but how we have not had time to learn, and that Mr. Bolton was discharged."

WAIT FOR THE TENTH OF AUGUST.

On the 10th of August there will be an august affair at Rosemount. Judge Parker will then be formally notified of his nomination for the Presidency. It will be a particularly notable event, for the reason that it will be the occasion of the first extensive public utterance from Judge Parker. He will make a speech accepting the nomination, but we are told that it will follow precedent as merely a speech of acceptance without going into the issues of the campaign.

Judge Parker will reserve for his formal letter of acceptance the discussion of issues and a statement of his views on national policies. Roosevelt will be formally notified of his nomination to-morrow, and after his declaration and later the pronouncement of Parker, the two nominees of the great parties will be fairly in the lime light before the American people.

Judge Parker's speech of acceptance and his formal letter later will be the criterion by which the voters will line up for the contest. We are minded that the Democratic nominee will take a position that will enthuse the Democracy and the independent voters and we don't care how soon his first epistle is forthcoming. His famous telegram to the Democratic National Convention will be but a circumstance alongside of his acceptance declaration in showing to the American people that the Democracy has put up for the Presidency a strong man, a statesman, and a winner.

REPUBLICANS AFTER TWO CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS.

Mr. T. J. Pence a few days ago wired this from Washington to the Raleigh Post:

Ex-Representative E. Spencer Blackburn returned to-day from Atlantic City, where he has been for several days past and left to-night for the State. While at the seashore Mr. Blackburn saw Chairman Babcock of the Republican Congressional Committee. During the day he called at Rupublican headquarters at the Arlington Hotel and saw Secretary Dover. The Republicans are claiming that they will carry the Eighth and Tenth districts, and it is probable that the national committee will turn loose much of the sinews of war in both of these districts.

Spence manifests an early state of nervousness in rushing off after money to help him in his campaign. He didn't even wait till the Republican collector got back with his collections from the trusts. He believes in getting something before he delivers the goods, but when the Democrats of the Tenth district get through with Blackburn the dispensers of the Republican campaign fund will think it was a gold brick that Spence was trying to sell them.

The North Carolina Republicans will "claim" anything if they can get long green to come their way during the campaign.

DINNA HEAR YE THE SLOGAN?

With the people growing more intelligent year after year, the day of demagoguery is passing. The candidate who expects to win must appeal in any cause to the reason and judgment of men. Evasions and double-dealing cut no ice and fool nobody but the man who is misled by believing that the school of sophistry is going to get very many pupils.

The man with honest convictions, calm judgment, and intellect to match, will get there, and stay there, too. The square dealer, the square hitter and the square thinker has got all the trimmers, double-dealers and sophists skinned to a finish. Every young man who wants to enter politics or any other race among men may as well get busy getting this into his head.

Dr. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION FOR WEAK WOMEN.

TRYING TO SAVE ROOSEVELT

On Friday a Washington dispatch to the New York Herald says:

President Roosevelt will not be called on to settle the "open shop" strike on the government war college work here, if the War Department officials can prevent it.

Captain Sewell, the engineer officer in charge of the work, to day drew more men from the civil service list furnished by the Board of Engineers and hopes to have the construction work in full swing again to-morrow. It is found that numbers of these men on the civil service list are non-unionists. As the grounds are protected there is no chance of any interference.

The bricklayers who called the strike say they will not suffer for work, as Baltimore will give employment to large numbers. They are now concentrating their efforts on trying to induce George Taylor, the non union negro workman over whom the trouble commenced, to join the union.

We rather suspect the administration officials will get the negro non-union laborer to join the union in order to keep the matter from going up to Roosevelt.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—— A man at Frankfort, Mo., has a beard eleven feet long. The Populists may now know where to look if Tom Watson declines their Presidential nomination.—Washington Post.

—— If Judge Parker had by some occult process become aware on Friday of what the platform contained, would he, as an as yet unnamed candidate, have been justified in interfering with the work of the convention? We think it quite likely in that event that he would have been accused of unwarranted assurance, to call it by no more fitting name.—Rochester Herald.

—— Great as the State is in mere physical stature, Texas is greater still in her actual resources and her potentialities for the future. In the half century between 1850 and 1900 her population increased from 212,502 to 3,045,710, which is the greatest pro rata gain made during the period by any State in the Union, even any of the most populous and thriving States of the West.—New York Herald.

——The Wilmington Star declares that no self-respecting white man in the South can vote the National Republican ticket, because of the negro plank in the platform, and it backs up its views by the following strong and picturesque language: "It really looks like the poorest shoat of a Southerner cannot help drawing the line against Rooseveltism when it strikes at his home like the Chicago platform does in its negro plank. Judas Iscariot's self-respect reasserted itself when, self-condemned and feeling meaner than a suck-egg dog, he went out and hanged himself. It is to be hoped that there are very few Southern men who would be ashamed to meet Judas coming down a hog path."

TWINKLINGS

— "Did you catch any fish the other day?" "No, but I got a long line of new stores."—Detroit Free Press.

— Too Bad.—"How do you like my painting?" "Oh, the colors are exquisite! What a pity we can't have such tints in nature."—Life.

— "He declares his wife made him all that he is." "Quite likely; and I should judge that she didn't waste more than half an hour on the job."—Exchange.

—Mopsy—"Dat pitcher ain't no good? Why, say, he kin pitch an in-colve wot goes out. Red. Aw, wot's dat! Wait till you see McFeeter's risin' drop colve!—Puck.

— Friend in Need.—"Can't you lend me a twenty, old chap? I'm on my vacation and need it badly." "Wait till you get back, old fel—you'l neet it worse then!"—Puck.

— Mrs. Gollightly—This is my new $65 bathing dress, my dear. What do you think of it? Gollightly—Think you got less for your money than any one I ever knew.—Town Topics.

— Where the Imagination Is Needed.—"I suppose in order to be a poet one must have a great deal of imagination." "He must if he thinks he is ever going to achieve distinction by writing poetry.—Chicago Record-Herald.

— Otherwise Useless: "We need a drawer or something to put these cuts away in," said the foreman of the country weekly. "Haven't got any drawer now that's not in use," replied the editor. "But, hold on! Yes, we have. Take the cash drawer."—Philadelphia Ledger.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Littleton has organized a Parker Glenn-Kitchin Club with 250 members.

— Charlotte Observer: Mr. Bryan says that imperialism will be the paramount issue of the present campaign. It's no go. He undertook to paramount imperialism four years ago and it wouldn't work, and now the people are four years older and proportionately wiser.

—W. L. Burns, an aged physician, waz found dead on the outskirts of Maxton Saturday evening after a heavy rain storm. He had been suffering from paresis for several years and was extremely feeble. He was seen going home just before a heavy rain, and it was supposed that he lost his way and died from exhaustion.

— Raleigh News and Observer: Col. Harry Skinner has found out that the sentiment of Eastern North Carolina is against the Watts law. All Federal officials have arrived at that opinion since the Republican State Convention adopted the Demijohn as the Republican emblem this year. Where is Wittkowski?

— John N. Dick, of Goldsboro, allowed a seedling peach tree to grow in his yard and this, the second year of bearing, he has gathered ten bushels of fine fruit from it. The peach is a magnificent specimen, nearly every one measuring eleven inches in circumference, and of fine flavor. Yesterday Lindley, the nurseryman, paid Mr. Dick $50 for the exclusive right to the tree.

Raleigh Post, July 24: Rev. W. E. Walker, the colored pastor of St. Paul's African Methodist Episcopal church here, for whom a warrant was issued on Friday charging him with the betrayal of the daughter of Maurice Watts, a respected colored barber of this city, was located in Durham yesterday, and Deputy Sheriff Walters left on the afternoon train to make the arrest. It is understood that Walters left here upon the advice of Presiding Elder Holt of this district, to whom Rev. Walker had confided his troubles, and went to Durham to consult his attorney, Mr. Victor S. Bryant. Messrs. Harris & Harris have been retained by Watts to prosecute Walker, and yesterday morning Col. Harris received a letter from Mr. Bryant in reference to the matter. Since the girl is over fourteen years of age the action will have to be a civil instead of a criminal one.

— An attempt was made to wreck the Seaboard passenger train between Durham and Henderson Saturday morning. Seven cross ties were piled upon the track covering a distance of not more than half a mile. Fortunately Engineer J. Allen saw the first obstruction in time to slow down, and by the time he had passed over this one he saw another. Running his train slowly for a half mile he knocked the seven ties from the track. Just before the train reached the seventh cross tie the engineer saw a negro crouching behind a tree; the train was stopped and the negro taken in charge. He said his name was Lewis Harris and admitted that he had placed the cross ties on the track. "Some railroad men have made me mad," he said. "But I did not want to hurt anybody on this train." The negro, who is known to be half witted, was taken to Oxford and is now confined in jail. There were about thirty passengers on the train and had the first obstruction not been discovered the result would probably have been serious and fatal.

— A dispatch from Goldsboro on Saturday says: The report circulated in this city yesterday to the effect that Mr. Emmett Herring, son of Mr. Barnes Herring, formerly a member of the police force of this city, had committed a criminal assault on a young lady of Faison, Duplin county, by the name of Miss Swinson, is untrue. Parties from this city conversant with the matter give the particulars about as foll lows: Young Herring met the girl in the road. It seems that both were riding, and they went into the woods together. Here the girl, overtaken by her brother, gave the alarm, claiming that she had been assaulted. Young Herring denied that he had forced the girl, but her brother refused to believe his statement. Swinson then went home and got his older brother and the two coming upon Herring tied him, placed a rope about his neck and strung him up to the limb of a tree. Herring would have been dead in a few minutes but for the timely interference of an uncle of his, who cut him down in time to save his life. Judge W. S. O'B. Robinson and Mr. W. T. Dortch, of this city, were telegraphed for and went down to appear for Herring at the trial. They returned this morning and report that there was not any evidence against Herring to warrant the justice in holding him and he was thereupon released. The people of Faison are badly wrought up over the affair, and it is said that Herring will have to hunt for other quarters. It appears that while young Herring was not guilty of the charge of criminal assault, he was guilty of seduction.

—"Ah, Professor," exclaimed the conceited young man. "I wish I knew as much as you do." "You would know more than I," replied the crusty old professor, "if you only knew as much as you think you do."—Philadelphia Ledger.

— A Close Call.—First Physician—So the operation was just in the nick of time? Second Physician—Yes, in another twenty-four hours the patient would have recovered without it.—Harper's Bazar.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Charles Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood; but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained fifty-eight pounds. It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store.

ALL OVER THE HOUSE.

Conveniences Which Lighten the Labors of the Cook.

There is much in arrangement. If the kitchen is small this takes care of itself, but in the large kitchen it requires some study and experience to know just where it is best for a certain object to stand. Housekeepers there are who place the woodbox at the end of the stove farthest from the firebox. Five or six steps must be taken to replenish the fire when, if the box stood at the upper end, the wood could be placed in the stove without a step, says a writer in the Housekeeper. Then, too, many housekeepers bend over a stove, sink or table too low for their height. The stove can be built up on bricks till it is the right height, and the table can be raised on blocks till it is convenient. The sink is a more difficult matter, but if it is too low for the housewife and the expense of making it higher is not to be thought of, put the dishpan on the table and wash the dishes there instead of in the sink. Do anything to avoid bending the back at an angle. A high stool should be in every kitchen, for it is possible to do much more work while sitting down than one would believe who had not tried it.

Another convenient article for the kitchen is a bench or box on which the mop pail may be placed when one is moping the floor or washing paint. This bench saves one from stooping to the floor each time the mop or cloth must be wrung out, and it is this stooping that makes this kind of work so tiresome. This same bench can be used for elevating the clothes basket when one is hanging out clothes.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star

NEW YORK, July 25.—The cotton market opened steady at an advance of two points to a decline of three points. The advance which was on the nearer positions was in response to higher Liverpool cables than expected, while the later months were depressed owing to the absence of confirmation of the crop damage reports which were circulating late on Saturday as a result of the heavy rains in the central belt. Trading was fairly active at the start and sentiment seemed to have a bearish leaning owing to the favorable character of the early map and reports of the strike at Fall River, and bearish private advices from the Liverpool market, where prices after the local opening showed an easy tendency. After the first wave of liquidation following the call, which forced the market down to a net loss of about eight to eleven points, trading became quiet and prices recovered slightly. During the balance of the session they ruled irregular, but on every little bulge there was selling by prominent floor brokers and the market was finally steady at about the lowest of the session or a net decline of five to eleven points. Sales were estimated at 50,000 bales. Private advices from Charlotte, N. C., stated that the first new bale was expected in that section about August 10. Advices from New Orleans expressed the opinion that the rains reported would delay the movement somewhat. Port receipts for the day were full as compared with last year, but exports were light. The strike at Fall River is expected to curtail the end-season demand to some extent. The mills affected by the strike are said to have been using about 2,000 bales per week just prior to the shut down.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Cotton was quoted quiet at 10.80c, net receipts — bales; gross receipts — bales; stock 41,068 bales.

Spot cotton closed quiet and 10 points lower; middling uplands 10.80c, middling gulf 11.05c; sales 2,500 bales.

Cotton futures market closed steady: July 10.27, August 10.20, September 9.84, October 9.64, November 9.57, December 9.61, January 9.64, February 9.66, March 9.68.

Total to-day, at all seaports—Net receipts 2,706 bales; exports to Great Britain 64 bales; exports to France — bales; exports to the Continent 91 bales; exports to Japan — bales; exports to Mexico — bales; stock 125,105 bales.

Consolidated, at all seaports—Net receipts 4,722 bales; exports to Great Britain 109 bales; exports to France — bales; exports to the Continent 682 bales; exports to Japan — bales; exports to Mexico 50 bales.

Total since September 1st, at all seaports—Net receipts 7,105,319 bales; exports to Great Britain 2,466,638 bales; exports to France 698,007 bales; exports to the Continent 2,576,686 bales; exports to Japan 44,790 bales; exports to Mexico 26,826 bales.

ONE of CUPID'S WAYS

By Sarah Lindsay Coleman

Copyright, 1903, by McClure's Newspaper Syndicate

The car that went to Overlook park was crowded; it usually was when there was a promise of a fine sunset.

Brooks gazed steadily from the window on the unpicturesque side of the car. Even when the passengers crowded to the other side to look into the valley far below them and at the mountains—mountains piled on top of mountains—he sat motionless.

As the Country club was passed he showed some interest.

It was Miss Hilderbrand's afternoon to pour tea there. Six months before, when Miss Hilderbrand had poured tea, Brooks sat on the clubhouse steps. The laughter of gay voices had drifted through the open windows to him. The club members seemed very gay. Brooks was a club member, but he was not gay.

An illness had sent him to the resort town to recuperate. Most of the hotel people belonged to the club, and he had joined. It seemed to him a good way to get rid of the time that hung so heavily on his hands.

But he didn't care for golf, he couldn't dance, he knew so little of the new books and the old pictures, the thousand and one things they talked about. He was an alien. Looking up, he saw Miss Hilderbrand on the step above him.

Miss Hilderbrand was the leader of the fashionables that ran the Country club. Her clothes were imitated, her speeches repeated.

Brooks had wondered that so reserved a woman could be as popular. He had noticed that the charm of distinction was in her high bred face, and then thought no more about her. Women were not much in his line either.

Miss Hilderbrand had smiled down on him and said that she wanted him to come in and drink tea with her. And when she smiled the question of her popularity was settled.

After that day Brooks became a real member of the club. The women left younger men to talk to him; the men slapped him on the back, invited him to drinks and voted him a fine old chap.

He began to enjoy the life and the new spirit of friendliness that pervaded the atmosphere. There was no more talk of leaving this circle of bright, pretty women and jolly fellows.

Brooks realized that he owed the change to Miss Hilderbrand. Once he asked her why she had taken him up, and she replied that she was sorry for lonely things.

Six months had made a new man of Brooks, and still he lingered.

People had come and gone, as they do at resort hotels, but Miss Hilderbrand had not gone.

The afternoon had again come for her to pour tea for the club members, but she had sent her excuses.

Johnston, a friend and fellow citizen of hers, said that she had gone on the mountain to be alone and get a grip on herself; that a telegram had brought her bad news.

The car climbed slowly.

Brooks hadn't the slightest idea what the trouble was nor what assistance he could render. There was but one desire in his honest heart, and that was to help her. How he would do it hadn't been revealed, but, with his usual directness, he had followed her to find out.

On the mountain top the band played, and gay groups of people moved in every direction.

Brooks came upon Miss Hilderbrand, solitary in the midst of the crowd. The glow of the sunset was on her, and as he came up she smiled unsteadily.

"I'm sorry you've heard it. I leave tomorrow. I hoped it would not be found out, but of course everybody will know."

"I'm not everybody," said Brooks stoutly. "I came because I want to comfort lonely things. What can I do?"

Miss Hilderbrand's glance went over Brooks' stout figure and came back to his clear eyes. The two faces were in sharp contrast—in his the rugged strength of a more simple civilization; in the girl's the suggestion of extreme culture.

"I'm glad you came," she said quite simply. "I'll like to remember it when I've become a dressmaker. That's what I've been up here deciding—what to do with myself now that the money's swept away. Dressmaking is my only real talent, and," with another attempt at a smile, "I'm thought to be such an accomplished young woman."

"But there's McAdoo." Brooks spoke that name with difficulty. Among the men there was one he detested, and it was Miss Hilderbrand's fiance. "Haven't you taken him into your arrangements?"

"He hasn't taken me into his arrangements," she said.

Brooks stared at her as though he had lost his senses.

"I've been jilted." She looked across the valleys filling with mist and not at Brooks.

"Habits are hard to break." She spoke to herself as much as to him. "It had gone on so long it was a habit. If we had cared for each other, we would have been married long ago."

She turned to Brooks. "But it hurts one's pride to be thrown overboard on the day one loses the money," she said. "I'm depressed at the dressmaking, too," she apologized.

"How'd a companion do?" asked Brooks cautiously.

"Not at all," said the girl. "I've a mean temper."

"The old person has the disposition of a cherub."

"I can't read and I sing abominably."

"Twouldn't be required."

"What would?"

"Whatever pleased you."

"But," half petulantly, "I don't like old ladies."

"This is an old gentleman."

"Twouldn't do; highly improper."

"Oh, yes it would! It's eminently respectable." Brooks got to his feet and began speaking rapidly.

"Look here," he said, "I know you don't care for me, but you are the finest girl I ever saw. I'm too old to learn all love's little tricks, but you won't expect much foolishness. I never had time for it when I was a youngster, and I can't promise much as a lover, but I can make your life easier and leave you a respectable pile of money at my death."

"And what would you gain?" Miss Hilderbrand asked the question when the silence had become audible. She had paled perceptibly.

"The right to make you happy," said Brooks.

The girl was silent. Her critical eyes saw Brooks, who was neither young nor handsome, at his best.

"Don't you think I wouldn't gain anything?" said the man. The silence was making him anxious.

"But you couldn't love me," plaintively. "You think love nonsense, and women need it."

Brooks got possession of a hand not far away. "I could learn," he protested ardently.

"And everybody would say I married you for your money."

"Let 'em!" stoutly. "A lot of old gossips!"

Miss Hilderbrand drew her hand away.

"I couldn't consider it," she said. A certain mischief that was new to her was in her averted face. "I've just been jilted, and I would be so lonely while you were learning."

Brooks slipped his arm about her. They were away from the people, and, anyway, it didn't matter. He turned her face to meet his eager one.

"I don't have to learn. It's come to me. You shan't say 'No!' Why, I love you like—like fury!" His voice thrilled with his earnestness.

The girl laughed contentedly.

"You are a nice old gentleman," she said, "even if you are forty. I haven't been asked about it, and I guess I shouldn't say so, but I'm awfully fond of you."

Brutally Tortured.

A case come to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equalled. Joe Golobick, of Colusa, Cal., writes: "For fifteen years I endured insufferable pain from rheumatism and nothing relieved me, though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters, and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." It's just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist.

Wood's Seeds.

Crimson Clover

Sown at the last working of the Corn or Cotton Crop, can be plowed under the following April or May in time to plant corn or other crops the same season. Crimson Clover prevents winter leaching of the soil, is equal in fertilizing value to a good application of stable manure and will wonderfully increase the yield and quality of corn or other crops which follow it. It also makes splendid winter and spring grazing, fine early green feed, or a good hay crop. Even if the crop is cut off, the action of the roots and stubble improve the land to a marked degree.

The Morning Star

WILMINGTON, N. C.

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 26.

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS CALL ON JUDGE PARKER.

Among the Number Senator Daniel, Jas. K. Jones and Daniel W. Campau. Confident of Victory This Fall.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ESOPUS, N. Y., July 25.—Former Senator James K. Jones, of Arkansas, Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia, and Daniel J. Campau, of Michigan, were callers at Rosemount, the home of Judge Alton B. Parker, Democratic candidate for President, to-day.

Neither Senator Jones nor Senator Daniel, who came hear by special invitation, had met Judge Parker before. They left sounding in glowing terms the praises of the party's standard bearer. Senator Jones told Judge Parker that every Democrat who voted for Mr. Bryan in 1896 and in 1900 will vote the Democratic ticket this Fall. Senator Daniel said that the franchise plank in the Democratic platform would make the South solid for the party, and that this plank also would enable the party to carry Maryland, West Virginia and Delaware.

It was reported to-day that a boom for Mr. Campau for the chairmanship of the National Committee may be launched at the national committee meeting to-morrow. It was stated by those who participated in the conference with Judge Parker that this subject was not discussed. The name of former Senator Jones Smith, Jr., of New Jersey, was heard in connection with the chairmanship.

Few callers have given Judge Parker so much genuine pleasure as he derived from his visit from Senators Jones and Daniel. The former, who managed both of Mr. Bryan's campaigns, is the representative of the Democrats who were in control at the party conventions four and eight years ago. Senator Jones told Judge Parker that the money question is not an issue in the campaign except as it was made a personal issue by Judge Parker himself. The fact that there is no money plank in the platform is satisfactory to Democrats who favor free silver and, therefore, Senator Jones said, Judge Parker's position in declaring for the gold standard is not offensive to them.

After the conference the visitors talked with newspaper men while waiting for their train for New York. Senator Daniel said he came to Esopus prepared to like Judge Parker. He had supported th[illegible]dge for the nomination and k[illegible]at deal of him, but his gr[illegible] and the clear grasp [illegible]ess side of the can[illegible] Fall particu-

[illegible] Parker man [illegible]out now he con[illegible]mpletely won over [illegible]ated on for any service [illegible]orm in the campaign. [illegible] of campaigning generally, [illegible]r Jones says he does not favor [illegible] presidential champion making a canvas by going on a general stumping tour. From this it is taken that the subject of personal campaigns was one of the topics of the long conference and that Judge Parker reiterated his objection to presidential candidates taking the stump. It is not believed that Judge Parker will leave Rosemount on a speech-making trip.

Some promises were made to Judge Parker by Senator Jones in regard to the fight that will be made to carry certain Western States claimed by the Republicans. Senator Jones said that if the Democrats in the East and Atlantic States do as well as he expected the Democrats in several of the Western States which have been termed solidly Republican will do, there will be a Democratic triumph in November.

"I do not mean that we will make a fight for every State," said Senator Jones. "There are some States where it would be foolish for the Republicans to spend money in the South, but I mean that the Republicans are not so sure of some States as they profess to be."

Asked whether he had given assurances to Judge Parker that no silver Democrat would oppose the ticket, Senator Jones said:

"I did not think that necessary. As I have told you, every Democrat will vote the Democratic ticket this year. I think Judge Parker understands that."

WAIVES RIGHT OF SEARCH.

Russia, In Deference to the Powers, Will Desist.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 24.—Grand Duke Alexis presided at yesterday's council, which Count Lamsdorff, the foreign secretary, and Vice Admiral Avellan, chief of the admiralty department, and other high naval officers attended.

The result of the conference removes all doubts concerning the present attitude of Russia with regard to the volunteer fleet. The validity of the view expressed in the British note regarding the irregularity of the position of the vessels was so far admitted that the council agreed to waive the right of search.

After a long discussion, in which Count Lamsdorff took a leading part, it was decided that the present status of the volunteer fleet was not sufficiently well defined according to international law to render further searches and seizures advisable and that therefore Russia in the interest of friendly relations with the powers should withdraw the authority given the volunteer fleet in this respect.

Orders were sent to the volunteer fleet steamers St. Petersburg and Smolensk to refrain from interference with foreign shipping.

RUSSIANS SINK A BRITISH STEAMER.

The Knight Commander With Cargo from New York for Yokohama.

CONTAINED NO CONTRABAND.

Cargo Belonged Mostly to American Merchants—Matter Brought to Attention of Department of State at Washington—British Action.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Minister Conger, at Pekin, has cabled the State Department under to-day's date, that he had been informed that the Russians to day evacuated New Chwang. He also confirms the published reports of the sinking by the Vladivostok squadron of a British steamer with a cargo consigned to the American Trading Company.

The vessel mentioned by Mr. Conger is the Knight Commander. Hopkins & Son, the local agents of the American Trading Company, report that the steamer sunk was of 6,000 tons and sailed from New York sixty days ago under charter by Howard, Houlder, Rowatt & Company, London and New York. The general cargo she carried belonged mostly to American merchants and was consigned to the American Trading Company's shipping agents at Yokohama, on account of the chartering firm. It is stated positively that the cargo contained no contraband and it is expected that the State Department will be addressed on the subject.

The week's investigation by the State Department of the problems connected with the operations of belligerent ships against neutral merchantmen, has crystalized in a letter addressed to the Pacific Mail Steamship Company. The department does not deem it opportune to make the letter public, but it is understood to be based upon expressions delivered in preceding administrations of the State Department, which in substance warned shippers against the carriage of contraband and of violation of port rules imposed by belligerents in a position to enforce them. The position of the department in this matter will be speedily and publicly developed, not academically, but in connection with the first protest which is lodged with the department against the action of one of the belligerents toward an American ship or an American cargo.

The case of the Knight Commander is regarded here as complicated and difficult of treatment. It is apprehended that if the contention of the shippers' agents that the cargo contained no contraband is correct, the general doctrine of "neutral flag covers neutral goods" has been violated by the destruction of the ship and cargo.

A fact developed this afternoon which might have led to serious complication had it not been announced that the Russian government had given orders for the release at Suez of the British ship Ardova. This vessel had on board a large quantity of supplies being shipped by the War Department to the Philippine government, including about 250 tons of powder and much other material that would fall within the Russian definition of contraband. The stores were being shipped through the house of George W. Peabody, of New York, and the Orient, who telegraphed the War Department that the Philippine stores were aboard the Ardova and asked the Department to exert itself to secure their release. The application was promptly taken by acting Secretary Oliver to the State Department, but in view of the release of the Ardova it is not probable that any action would be taken by the department.

LONDON, July 25, 7:10 P. M.—The Foreign Office has received news of the sinking of the British steamer Knight Commander and has instructed the British consul at Yokohama to make a full investigation of the case and report at once to Downing street. Until his report is received no action will be taken. The Foreign Office regrets the incident as coming at an unfortunate time in connection with public opinion here, but the officials refrain from all comment, pending receipt of details.

There is practically no excitement here over the sinking of the Knight Commander, the Russian action having been taken by a regular warship and within the zone of hostilities. The bitter criticism evoked over the action of the vessels of the Russian volunteer fleet and the passage of the Dardanelles is more or less disarmed. The Foreign Office takes it as merely another strong argument in favor of the international conference relative to contraband.

LONDON, July 25.—Answering questions based on the seizure of ships by Russian volunteer fleet steamers, Premier Balfour, in the House of Commons to-day, said:

"The difficulties arising from these captures deal with a problem which has given and is still giving the government great anxiety, but which I may say the signs portend a favorable issue. More than that I think it would be inexpedient to say."

With reference to the question whether Great Britain was bound under the Suez canal convention to allow a British vessel taken as a prize to pass through the canal, the premier said that the government was bound to allow prizes of war to pass through the canal.

FALL RIVER STRIKE.

Twenty-six Thousand Operatives Quit Work—Mill Owners Equally Determined—Outcome Uncertain.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

FALL RIVER, MASS., July 25.—The first day of the strike of 26,000 cotton mill operatives here passed quietly. The mill owners and their operatives are determined in their positions and the outcome is hard to predict. A portion of one mill was operated until noon to-day, and at another mill some twenty men worked. When the mill gates in Fall River were opened this morning less than 800, conservatively estimated, out of an army of some 26,000 operatives, reported for work.

The Bourne and Narragansett mills opened at the usual hour but when the operatives came out at noon a large force of strikers was on hand and their arguments were so effective that not enough weavers returned to the Bourne works to operate the plant. Only a score of employes returned to the Narragansett mills. The strike leaders repeatedly warned their followers throughout the day that violence must be avoided and with a single exception, unimportant in itself, their advice was heeded.

Two persons were killed and several injured in a collision between a Big Four passenger train and an electric car in Indianapolis last night. The locomotive struck the front of the electric car, throwing the car twenty feet.

UNDER CROSS-EXAMINATION.

Continuation of Trial of W. E. Breese, Under Charge of Taking $114,000 from the Asheville Bank.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., July 25.—After being on the stand for direct examination for four days, William E. Breese, under the charge of taking $114,000 from the First National Bank of Asheville while its president, was turned over to District Attorney Holton for cross-examination to-day at noon. Mr. Holton subjected the defendant to a vigorous examination. When asked concerning several of the transactions concerning his indebtedness to the bank, the witness replied that he did not remember.

In reference to a letter to the Central National Bank, of Philadelphia, enclosing notes to the amount of $9,613.85 in which it was stated the makers were good, the witness said the statement was true at the time.

Other transactions were also taken up in detail and explained.

During his connection with the bank, the witness said the total amount of his income was $49,000. It was understood and agreed that money he deposited in the bank should lie subject to check. At this juncture, Judge Keller remarked, "You mean to say that you had an agreement with your board of directors whereby no money you deposited was to go to reducing your indebtedness?"

"No; not exactly that far," replied the witness, "but we had to live."

The district attorney attempted to draw from the witness an admission that the bank was insolvent by reason of the fact that the combined overdraft of the president and cashier were in excess of the capital stock, but Breese contended that the bank was solvent and perfectly able to meet all obligations.

When Mr. Holton asked why certain notes were good the witness replied: "Because I was behind them."

"Didn't you testify that the failure left you without a dollar?" asked the district attorney. "I did," replied the witness.

"Then you were no better than Mr. Kemp or any of the others who signed these notes?" (Kemp was the colored carriage driver whose signature was attached to several notes.)

The district attorney had hardly concluded his remark before the five attorneys for Breese were on their feet protesting against the manner of the cross-examination of the district attorney. The court stated that such questions were out of order.

J. S. Adams, of counsel for the defence, arose and said:

"May it please your honor I think it would quiet the nerves of the witness if the court could assure him that he is safe from any personal violence at the hands of the district attorney."

With a smile Judge Keller stated that he was sure the defendant was in no danger.

Attorneys on both sides agreed in court that the trial would be concluded this week.

DEMOCRATIC CONFERENCE IN NEW YORK CITY.

Animated Scene at Hoffman House—The National Committee—Thos. T. Taggart Will be Elected Chairman.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The Democratic National Committee will pay its respects to the Democratic candidate Wednesday. Arrangements have been made by Norman E. Mack, member of the committee for New York, and Cord Meyer, chairman of the New York Democratic State committee, for the national organization to leave New York at 11 A. M. and go direct to Esopus, where each member will be presented to Judge Parker. Some members have never seen their candidate.

The members of the committee who arrived to-day have confirmed the opinion that Thomas T. Taggart will be elected chairman. Both William F. Sheehan and Norman E. Mack, who know as much as anybody about Judge Parker's position on this matter, say that Taggart will be chosen. The outlook now is that Taggart will be the unanimous choice of the committee.

The settlement of the chairmanship has made the contest for the minor positions more prominent. There has been considerable talk about the selection of the secretary, the candidates being C. A. Walsh, of Iowa, the former secretary; Urey Woodson, of Kentucky, and Edward Sefton, of the District of Columbia. Members of the committee expressed the opinion that Woodson will be chosen.

It seems to be generally understood that August Belmont is to be elected treasurer of the committee.

An agreement was practically reached to night for the formation of an executive committee of eleven members, of which Mr. Taggart will be ex-officio chairman and a campaign committee of seven, of which William F. Sheehan will be chairman. This arrangement meets with favor among those Eastern Democrats who wanted Senator Gorman for chairman of the committee.

Nearly all the members of the committee have reached here. There was an animated scene to night at the Hoffman House, where Democrats from all over the country had assembled. Chairman Jones, who will call the committee to order to-morrow, Senator Daniel and D. J. Campau, arrived from Esopus. Former Senator Hill returned from the seaside and held many conferences during the evening. Senator Gorman came over from Washington, accompanied by L. Victor Baugham.

There are only a few proxies. Clark Howell, member of Georgia, could not come, as he is president of the State Senate and this is the last week of the legislative session. He will be represented by Joseph Ohl.

During the evening there was a general interchange of opinions about conditions in different States, especially those which the Democrats hope to wrest from the Republicans this fall. New Yorkers were expressing great confidence in their ability to carry this State, and assured their fellow Democrats that if they would do as well, Parker would be elected.

The Democratic Club will entertain the Democratic national committee and other prominent Democrats from various parts of the country at a reception and supper at the club house to-morrow night.

A very determined effort was made to-night to make Senator Gorman chairman of the Democratic National Committee. After several conferences among Democratic leaders former Senator Jones and William F. Sheehan called on Senator Gorman at his room and urged him to reconsider his determination not to accept the chairmanship. The Maryland senator remained firm and suggested that Mr. Sheehan take the place if it was necessary to have an Eastern man for the position. Mr. Sheehan stated to Mr. Gorman and others to whom the suggestion was communicated, that it was impossible for him to take the place.

The impression prevails among the strongest supporters of Mr. Taggart that notwithstanding the efforts made to-night he will be elected.

CHICAGO BUTCHERS AGAIN ON STRIKE.

Determined on a Fight to the Finish With Packers to Enforce Their Demands.

ALLIED TRADES QUIT WORK.

Nearly 30,000 Persons in Chicago Alone Are Engaged in the Struggle—The Packers Declare That the Strike is Already a Failure.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHICAGO, July 25.—With all peace negotiations broken off and with all the allied trades unions employed at the different plants, with the exception of the teamsters and the stationary engineers, out on strike in sympathy with the butcher workmen who quit work two weeks ago, the stock yards strike to-night has settled down to what promises to be a long, bitter fight.

As has been threatened for some time the allied trades employed in the packing industry of Chicago quit work when called on to-day to assist the striking butchers in their efforts to bring the packers to terms. In several instances the men did not wait for the official notification from their leaders to strike, but threw down their tools and quit work of their own volition.

At 6 o'clock to-night the statement was made by Michael Donnelly, president of the Butchers Union, that every union man employed at the stock yards with the exception of the teamsters and stationary engineers had responded to orders for a general sympathetic strike. The engineers, he declared, would join the strikers to-morrow morning, and unless there was a speedy settlement of the difficulty, he said, the teamsters would undoubtedly join in the struggle soon. According to Mr. Donnelly to-day's strike swelled the number of men who have quit work at the stock yards in Chicago alone to nearly 30,000 persons.

Both sides to the controversy declared to-night that they were perfectly satisfied with the present state of affairs and that they were willing to make it a fight to a finish to determine who shall dictate the terms of settlement.

According to the packers, the general strike to-day was a failure, it being asserted by them that not more than half the members of the allied trades quit work when officially called out by the leaders this morning. The further statement was made by the packers that should all the union men decide to join the strikers, it would make little difference to the employers, as they had sufficient resources to contest the ground for an indefinite period.

On the other hand the labor leaders assert that all the union employes at the different packing plants, together with several employes of the Union Stock Yards and Transit Company, quit work to-day in response to the general order for a sympathetic strike.

The Independent Packers.

A new phase of the strike situation developed late this afternoon when notice was given by the unions to the independent packers at the stock yards that their men would not be allowed to handle animals which had been handled in any way by non-union men. It is necessary for those independent concerns to take all of their live stock into the yards over Union Stock Yards runways, where the stock must be handled by non-union men. The union men employed by the stock yards company in this line of work were among the employes who joined the sympathetic strike to-day. The ultimatum of the union leaves the independent packers no alternative but to receive their live stock directly from the country or to close business entirely. A meeting of the independent packers was held to-night to map out some plan of action, but no definite conclusion was reached. Another meeting will be held to-morrow to consider the matter.

Despite the sympathetic strike, all the plants worked regular time to-day although at a reduced capacity. At Armour & Company's plant it was said that 1,880 hogs, 700 cattle and 300 sheep were slaughtered during the day. At the other six plants a similar amount of work was accomplished and it was predicted by all that to-morrow there would be a decided increase in the number of animals slaughtered.

An exciting encounter in which about twenty men and women took part occurred to-day on Shetland avenue, near the stock yards. Mrs. Marie Zlatrick had reproached her husband for not returning to work, whereupon neighbors took sides, and the result was a struggle in which Mrs. Zlatrick and three men were badly hurt. Her husband escaped injury. Policemen stopped the fight but made no arrests. Zlatrick is still on strike.

Later Mrs. Anna Tickle, who has three sons on strike, was severely beaten and robbed of a small amount of money. One son, Leopold, was arrested in connection with the attack.

At Fort Worth.

FORT WORTH, TEX., July 25.—Pickets have been maintained as usual at the packing plants, but in spite of this packers have taken on about 500 new workmen. Receipts at the yards were about normal, and the purchases by the packers were in the same proportion. The only disturbance of the day was caused by a striker picket trying to prevent a seeker after work from going to the plants. A special officer knocked the picket from a bridge for interfering with the would-be workman. No rioting will be permitted by the sheriff.

RACE RIOT.

One White Man and Four Negroes Received Wounds, Some Fatal.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

DANVILLE, VA., July 25.—A riot at Stokesland, five miles from this city late yesterday, resulted in the serious injury of four persons. The trouble started with some negroes who abused a party of white men, accompanied by women, because of the refusal of the whites to give them matches to light their pipes. Irvin Cook, white, and William Hall, Harvie Gwinn and Harry Flippin, all colored, received wounds, some of which may prove fatal. The women escaped without injury. Most of the population of the town turned out under arms and a race war was narrowly averted. The police department of this city was called upon to quell the disturbance.

RUSSIANS DEFEATED IN SUNDAY'S BATTLE.

After Fighting All Day—Japs Have Not Yet Entered New Chang—The Vladivostok Squadron Still Cruising.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

NEW CHWANG, July 25.—A battle took place yesterday (Sunday) east of Tatchekiao, which resulted in the Russians being driven back and it is believed they will have to retire to Liao Yang. The battle lasted all day.

TIEN TSIN, July 25.—Information has been received to the effect that the Japanese have not entered New Chwang. The Russian civil administration departed last night (Sunday) and the destruction of Russian government property began this morning at the instance of the administration.

The fighting reported yesterday took place between New Chwang and Tatchekiao and the Japanese troops from Kaichou were engaged. No engagement has taken place at Tatchekiao.

Vladivostok Squadron.

TOKIO, July 25.—The Russian Vladivostok squadron was seen to the eastward of Kausa province at 2 o'clock this afternoon. It was steaming to the east.

Kausa province is on the east side of Tokio bay.

The Volunteer Fleet.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 25.—The Associated Press is informed that the Russian volunteer fleet steamers Smolensk and St. Petersburg have already been ordered home and that instructions for them to return have been cabled. The assurances given Great Britain on this point are declared to be satisfactory.

The instructions given the commanders of the vessels repeat the orders heretofore announced in these dispatches, directing them to refrain from further attempts to stop merchantmen either in the Red Sea or Mediterranean.

The decision not to insist upon the war status of the ships was probably reached at the conference held Saturday. The two ships may be brought to the Baltic and formally recommissioned.

Russia has reiterated her assurances that all vessels seized pending the receipt of instructions by the captains of the Smolensk and St. Peterburg shall at once be released.

Artillery Fight.

LONDON, July 25.—A dispatch to a news agency from Liao Yang reports heavy artillery fighting there all yesterday. The Russian casualties, it was alleged, were thought not to exceed 400, while the Japanese are thought to have lost more men. While the Japanese were attacking, the "southern attachment," according to the dispatch, was forced to retire, leaving their dead and wounded on the field. The dispatch lacks convincing details.

LONDON, July 26.—War news in the newspapers this morning is most scant, but all reports indicate that the Russians have suffered a serious check in the vicinity of Tatchekiao.

The "Daily Telegraph's" Liao Yang correspondent, telegraphing Sunday, reports that Tatchekiao was definitely evacuated after a severe engagement which was intended to retard a Japanese flank movement on Liao Yang, but the dispatch does not give the place of the battle or the date.

The correspondent at Tien Tsin of the "Standard" reports incurrent fighting since Thursday around Ta Tche Kiao and Kai Chau, in which the Japanese were steadily forcing the Russians back.

The dispatch from Liao Yang to a news agency here reporting heavy fighting there all of Sunday, it would appear, refers to this battle, and from this and other reports it seems that some 30,000 Russians were engaged, and that the battle to a great extent was an artillery duel, no mention being made of a cavalry charge, although the ground is fairly open and level.

New Chwang Evacuated.

PARIS, July 26.—A dispatch to the Matin from New Chwang says that heavy firing continued all day long on July 24th. The battle lasted for sixteen hours. The Russians were driven back on the east side and were reported to be utterly routed on the north.

The dispatch says the Russians evacuated New Chwang, of which the Japanese will probably take possession July 26th.

DETROIT DRIVING CLUB.

Baron Gratton Won the $5,000 Stake for 2:24 Pacers.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

DETROIT, July 25.—Baron Gratton, driven by Ed. George, this afternoon at the blue ribbon of the Detroit Driving Club, which opens the grand trotting circuit, won the $5,000 Chamber of Commerce stake for 2:24 pacers. It was the fastest race in the history of the stake, the former record of 2:06½, made in 1902 by Direct Hal, being broken in the first heat, which was won by Morning Star. The record was placed at 2:06¼ by Morning Star in this heat, and this mark was equalled by Baron Gratton in the second heat. Baron Gratton then equalled Direct Hal's record in the third heat. The feature of the day with the Chamber of Commerce stake was the appearance of Lou Dillon, the famous trotter. Driven to wagon by her owner, C. K. G. Billings, Lou Dillon succeeded only in equalling the record 2:06½. The time by quarters was: :30½, 1:02½, 1:34, 2:06½.

DANVILLE RIOTERS.

Two of Ringleaders of Mob Sentenced to Fine and Imprisonment.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

DANVILLE, VA., July 25.—R. J. Lynch and Whit Myers, ringleaders in the riot of Wednesday morning, were tried in the mayor's court this morning. Lynch was fined fifty dollars and sentenced to sixty days in jail for participation in the riot, and was fined fifty dollars additional for assaulting an officer. Myers was fined fifty dollars and sentenced to sixty days in jail. Both men noted an appeal. The testimony in both cases was principally that of the officers who defended the jail from attack. Bud and Charles Pruitt, against whom indictments are pending, were arrested during the day.

WARM WIRELETS.

SENATOR DAVIS

Will Hold His Notification Meeting on the 17th of August.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BEDFORD, PA., July 25.—Senator Davis to-day told the Associated Press that he had received a telegram from Judge Parker yesterday saying that he would hold his notification meeting on August 10, and as he had planned to have his notification meeting held one week later than Mr. Parker, he named the date last night and sent a telegram to Hon. John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, temporary chairman of the St. Louis convention, that his notification meeting would be held at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., on the 17th of August. Mr. Davis is very enthusiastic and believes that his party will come out victorious at the Fall election.
